Maro Engel Crowned Champion of the First SJM Macau GT Cup – FIA GT World Cup

(Macau, 22 November 2015) The SJM Macau GT Cup – FIA GT World Cup, title sponsored by Sociedade de Jogos de Macau, S.A. (“SJM”), held its finale today with Maro Engel of Germany winning the first FIA GT World Cup.

The finale of the SJM Macau GT Cup – FIA GT World Cup started at 12:55 pm today as drivers competed along long straights and twisty corners, including the world-renowned Lisboa Bend. Germany’s Maro Engel won the race, René Rast took second, and Stefan Mücke, third. Mercedes-Benz earned the inaugural FIA GT World Cup for Manufacturers. Chairman of the Board of Directors of SJM Dr. Ambrose So, Managing Director and Chief Administrative Officer Ms. Angela Leong and Director Dr. Rui Cunha presented the trophies to the winners after the race.

Dr. Ambrose So, Chairman of the Board of Directors of SJM, said, “As a long-term supporter of the Macau Grand Prix, SJM is proud to be the title sponsor of the inaugural SJM Macau GT Cup – FIA GT World Cup, which demonstrates not only the enormous popularity of this category of racing, but also the high recognition from FIA to Macau in promoting GT competition since its debut in 2008. We believe that our involvement in this internationally acclaimed sports event will further enhance Macau’s role as a world centre of tourism and leisure.”
