

Press Release

SJM Reaffirms Position as Asia's Leader in Wine Spectator's "Grand Award" Honours

Dominating Macau's Culinary and Wine Scene Alongside STDM with 11 Award-Winning Restaurants

(Macau, 24 June 2025) SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM") has once again secured the highest number of "Grand Awards" in Asia, as conferred by the internationally renowned Wine Spectator magazine. Of just 97 top restaurants worldwide to receive this honour, two of Grand Lisboa Macau's iconic dining venues have once again earned their place among the best: Robuchon au Dôme continues its extraordinary streak with a 21st consecutive win, while Casa Don Alfonso celebrates its 16th consecutive year of recognition. In total, eleven restaurants of SJM and its parent company, Sociedade de Turismo e Diversões de Macau, S.A. ("STDM"), are honoured this year on the Macau list, continuing the record-breaking success from 2024.

In addition to the two flagship awardees, The Eight and The Kitchen at Grand Lisboa have each retained the "Best Award of Excellence." Over at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau, six restaurants including Palace Garden, Mesa by José Avillez, Zuicho, Don Alfonso 1890, Hua Ting and The Grand Buffet, as well as Guincho a Galera at Hotel Lisboa Macau also received the same distinction, underscoring SJM and STDM's comprehensive strength in the fine dining arena.

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, commented, "We are truly honoured to be recognised once again by Wine Spectator. This distinction is a great encouragement for our team and a testament to their pursuit of excellence. Macau's East-meets-West heritage offers boundless inspiration for pairing fine wines with exceptional cuisine. Outstanding dining experiences are key to elevating the visitor journey and vital to supporting Macau's development as a 'World Centre of Tourism and Leisure.' We will continue to fuse gastronomy, culture and tourism to showcase the richness of Macau as a UNESCO-designated 'Creative City of Gastronomy,' drawing wine lovers, sommeliers, collectors and high-end travellers from around the world."

SJM is home to one of Asia's finest wine collections, comprising nearly 500,000 bottles and over 17,700 labels spanning classic Old World vintages and innovative New World selections. Its team of professional sommeliers champions world-class wines from the globe, offering thoughtfully curated pairings with its acclaimed culinary offerings.

Renowned for its rigorous selection criteria, Wine Spectator's "Grand Award" is reserved for restaurants with wine lists of at least 1,000 selections, including rare vintages, premier estates, and large-format bottles. The "Best Award of Excellence" requires more than 350 quality labels, alongside expert storage conditions and a knowledgeable service team.

- End -

Grand Lisboa's Robuchon au Dôme and Casa Don Alfonso led Asia's restaurants, receiving Wine Spectator's prestigious "Grand Award" for 21 and 16 consecutive years, respectively. The Eight and The Kitchen also retained the "Best Award of Excellence."

Palace Garden, Mesa by José Avillez, Zuicho, Don Alfonso 1890, Hua Ting and The Grand Buffet at Grand Lisboa Palace once again earned the “Best Award of Excellence.”

Guincho a Galera at Hotel Lisboa also received the “Best Award of Excellence.”