SJM Wins Three Asia Awards at The World of Fine Wine's World's Best Wine Lists 2025

Reinforces Leadership in Global Wine Collection

(Macau, 24 July 2025) SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM") is pleased to announce that two signature restaurants at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau have received three major accolades in The World of Fine Wine's World's Best Wine Lists 2025. Palace Garden won the Best Hotel Wine List and Best Sake List (outside Japan) in Asia, while Zuicho won Best Large-Format Wine List in Asia. These awards reaffirm SJM's leadership in wine programme excellence on the international dining stage.

Palace Garden and Zuicho will compete in the September global finals against awardees from five other regions for the top honours. In addition, the organiser has established the "Champions' League," an independent list recognising the world's most outstanding wine collections. This prestigious award, one of the highest distinctions in wine curation, comprising five categories, each with a single global winner. SJM's Robuchon au Dôme at Grand Lisboa Macau has been crowned the "Champions' League – Best Dessert & Fortified Wine List" title for five consecutive years, since 2020. SJM looks forward to its restaurants achieving further success and continuing to shine on the international stage.

SJM's expert sommelier team carefully selects wine labels from around the world that best complement each restaurant's cuisine and style. These selections are seamlessly integrated into the wine list design and sommelier service, enhancing the layered expression of each dish and elevating the overall dining experience. This latest international recognition highlights SJM's continued investment in expanding its wine portfolio, promoting wine culture, actively contributing to the advancement of Macau's culinary profession and reinforcing the city's status as a world-class "Creative City of Gastronomy."

Organised by the internationally acclaimed wine publication "The World of Fine Wine," the "World's Best Wine Lists" has been held annually since its launch in 2014. The programme attracts participation from the world's top hotels and restaurants each year. Judged by a distinguished panel comprising Masters of Wine, world-class sommeliers and renowned wine critics, the awards evaluate entries based on criteria including breadth and depth of selection, vintages, pricing, list design, cultural diversity, and alignment with the restaurant's identity—making it one of the most respected accolades in the industry.
