

Press Release

SJM Theodore Racing Triumphs in Korea's Round Four of the 2025
Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia

Invites Global Racing Fans to Experience Macau's Motorsport Heritage with Special Racing-Inspired Getaway Packages

- Macau's Charles Leong and Ireland's Alex Denning deliver a dramatic last-lap win – their fifth victory of the season
- SJM Theodore Racing further extends championship lead heading into the penultimate round

(Macau, 4 August 2025) With the support of long-standing partner SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM"), renowned Asian motorsport team SJM Theodore Racing clinched a thrilling victory in race two of the Inje double-header at Round Four of the 2025 Lamborghini Super Trofeo Asia ("LSTA"). Macau's Charles Leong Hon Chio and Irish teammate Alex Denning capped off a challenging weekend with an electrifying win, preserving their flawless record in all four double-header rounds of the season.

A tireless advocate for motorsport development in Macau, SJM is committed to promoting the sport's growth both on and off the track—by supporting the longest-running international event of the city, and by nurturing the next generation of racing talent. Its enduring partnership with SJM Theodore Racing underscores this dual mission, providing a platform for emerging drivers like Leong to shine on the global stage, while reinforcing Macau's status as a "City of Sports."

Round Four of the six-round, 12-race LSTA season took place at South Korea's Inje Speedium from 18 to 20 July. The penultimate round will be held at Malaysia's Sepang Circuit from 5 to 7 September, followed by the season finale in Misano, Italy, from 6 to 7 November. Misano will also host the prestigious Lamborghini Super Trofeo World Finals, where the top drivers from the European, North American, and Asian series will compete for ultimate bragging rights.

– End –

SJM Theodore Racing clinched a thrilling victory in race two of the Inje double-header at Round Four of the 2025 LSTA.

Macau's Charles Leong Hon Chio and Irish teammate Alex Denning capped off a challenging weekend with an electrifying win.

SJM has launched limited-time “SJM Theodore Racing Celebration Packages”, inviting fans to discover the city’s storied motorsport legacy firsthand.