

Press Release

SJM's Three Flagship Hotels Garner Six MICHELIN Keys, the Most in Macau

All three properties defend their Two Key standing in the 2026 global selection as SJM's MICHELIN recognition extends across both hospitality and dining (Macau, 18 September 2026) Three flagship hotels of SJM Resorts, S.A. ("SJM"), namely Grand Lisboa Palace Macau, THE KARL LAGERFELD MACAU, and Palazzo Versace Macau, have each retained the MICHELIN Two Key distinction for a second consecutive year in the 2026 MICHELIN Key selection, revealed globally today. Together, the three properties of SJM have garnered a total of six MICHELIN Keys, the most in Macau.

Ms. Daisy Ho, Managing Director of SJM, remarked, "Retaining this distinction and remaining among Macau's highest-rated hotels reflects our unwavering pursuit of excellence. The MICHELIN Key has become an important benchmark for discerning travellers worldwide, and we are proud that three of our hotels have again received Two Keys. Together with the eight MICHELIN Stars awarded to our restaurants this year, this dual recognition reflects the equal care we devote to exceptional dining and luxurious stays. I also congratulate all recognised industry peers, whose collective achievements continue to strengthen Macau's standing as a 'World Centre of Tourism and Leisure'."

The hotel distinction sits alongside a landmark year for SJM at the table. In the MICHELIN Guide Hong Kong & Macau 2026, announced earlier this year, the group was awarded eight MICHELIN Stars in total. At Grand Lisboa Macau, Robuchon au Dôme held three Stars for an 18th consecutive year and The Eight retained two Stars in its 18th year of MICHELIN recognition, while at Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau, Zuicho retained one Star, and Palace Garden and Don Alfonso 1890 each entered the Guide with one Star.

Each of the three Two Key hotels expresses that standard in its own register:

Grand Lisboa Palace Macau, MICHELIN Two Keys

The hotel draws Chinese and European artistry into a single architectural conversation, carried consistently from its landscaped garden through to its interiors. Guests may enjoy spacious accommodations, a dining collection that includes MICHELIN Starred restaurants, and a programme of cultural showcases drawn from the group's art collection.

THE KARL LAGERFELD MACAU, MICHELIN Two Keys

The world's only hotel whose interiors were designed in their entirety by Karl Lagerfeld brings his bold, forward-looking aesthetic into dialogue with modern chinoiserie. Chinese porcelain vases and circular room dividers inspired by traditional Chinese moon gates blend effortlessly with Western Art Deco elements throughout the suites, creating a compelling meeting of East and West. The result is a hotel that reads as a living work of art.

Palazzo Versace Macau, MICHELIN Two Keys

The first Versace-branded hotel in Asia furnishes every room and suite with pieces from Versace Home. From the overall spaces through to the smallest details, the mosaics, Medusa motifs and Barocco patterns that define the maison are woven throughout, an immersive expression of Italian craftsmanship and glamour.

For more than a century, the MICHELIN Guide has set the highest international standard in dining through anonymous visits and rigorous, repeated assessment. The Guide has extended that respected method to hotels through the MICHELIN Key, a distinction recognising properties that offer a genuinely exceptional stay. Regarded as one of the highest honours in hospitality, the MICHELIN Key is awarded at three levels: One, Two and Three Keys. It draws on a global MICHELIN Guide hotel selection spanning more than 100 countries and over 9,000 hotels, from which inspectors identify the properties that perform most outstandingly in every respect.

For three flagship hotels to defend the distinction together is both a privilege and an obligation, and SJM will continue in its pursuit of excellence, extending its hospitality to create experiences that exceed the expectations of guests around the world.

- End -

SJM's three flagship hotels, Grand Lisboa Palace Macau, THE KARL LAGERFELD MACAU and Palazzo Versace Macau, have each retained the MICHELIN Two Key distinction for a second consecutive year in the 2026 MICHELIN Key selection, garnering a total of six MICHELIN Keys, the most in Macau.

Recognised with MICHELIN Two Keys for the second consecutive year, Grand Lisboa Macau brings Chinese and European artistry into a single architectural conversation, complemented by exceptional MICHELIN-Starred dining experiences.

Awarded MICHELIN Two Keys for the second consecutive year, THE KARL LAGERFELD MACAU is the world's only hotel designed in full by the Karl Lagerfeld.

Garnering MICHELIN Two Keys for the second consecutive year, Palazzo Versace Macau, the first Versace-branded hotel in Asia, weaves the maison's signature Medusa and Barocco motifs with Italian craftsmanship and glamour.