SJM and Parent Company Honoured in the 2025 Black Pearl Restaurant Guide

(Macau, 25 April 2025) SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) and its parent company, Sociedade de Turismo e Diversões de Macau, S.A. (“STDM”), earning diamond-level honours for four of their restaurants at the Black Pearl Restaurant Guide 2025 Awards Ceremony, taken place today in Singapore, highlighting the Group’s outstanding culinary achievements. The event also served as an international platform to promote Macau’s unique reputation as a UNESCO-designated “Creative City of Gastronomy.”

At SJM’s Grand Lisboa Macau, Robuchon au Dôme retained the highest three-diamond distinction for the seventh consecutive year, while The Eight restaurant was awarded two diamonds for the fourth year running. At Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau, the opulent Cantonese restaurant Palace Garden made its debut on the list with a one-diamond accolade. Meanwhile, STDM’s Guincho a Galera at Hotel Lisboa Macau received a one-diamond rating for the second consecutive year.

Launched in 2018 by Dianping, the Black Pearl Restaurant Guide stands as a beacon of culinary excellence, celebrating the rich heritage of Chinese gastronomy. This esteemed rating organisation is meticulously curated by a distinguished council of industry experts, renowned chefs, and influential gastronomes, all dedicated to upholding the highest standards of culinary artistry. The guide recognises restaurants across three prestigious tiers, with three diamonds symbolising the pinnacle of achievement—an endorsement of a truly world-class dining experience. Beyond food quality, the guide delves into elements of creativity, exceptional service, and the cultural ambiance, reflecting the profound depth and vibrant diversity of culinary traditions. Through the Black Pearl Restaurant Guide, SJM invites food enthusiasts to explore and appreciate the extraordinary flavours and experiences that define the essence of gastronomy.
