Showcasing Macau’s Charisma as a ‘City of Performing Arts’ to the World

(Macau, 4 January 2026) Title sponsored by SJM Resorts, S.A. (“SJM”) and organised by Television Broadcasts Limited (“TVB”), the “SJM Resorts Presents: TV Awards Presentation 2025” concluded successfully on 4 January at The Grand Hall, Grand Lisboa Palace Resort Macau. By bringing this annual entertainment extravaganza to Macau for the third consecutive year, SJM aims to highlight the city’s proven expertise in hosting world-class events and to seamlessly blend screen, stage, and tourism, showcasing Macau’s diverse vitality as a “City of Performing Arts” to a global audience.

The evening began with a red carpet ceremony at the East Entrance of Grand Lisboa Palace, where fans from the Greater Bay Area and overseas gathered to support their idols. A glittering lineup of nearly 90 nominated artists graced the ceremonial amid cheers from the crowd and a flurry of camera flashes. The award presentation unfolded with grandeur in the Grand Hall, unveiling popular awards such as Best Drama Series, Best Actor and Actress, as well as Best Supporting Actor and Actress, highlighted by the sincere acceptance speeches from the winners.

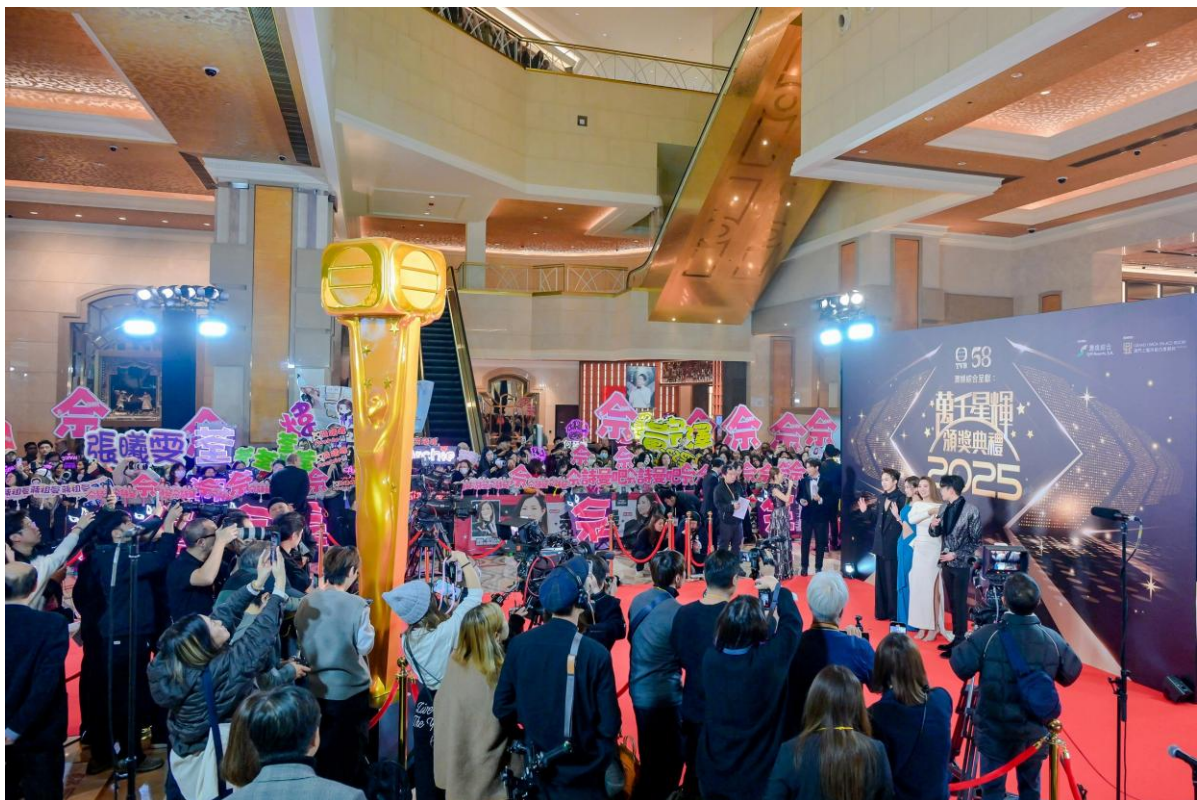

In addition to being broadcast live on TVB Jade, the awards presentation was also simultaneously streamed and broadcast to Singapore, Malaysia, the United States, and Canada. Global audiences (excluding mainland China, Hong Kong, and Macau) could watch through the TVB Anywhere and TVBAnywhere+ mobile apps, while viewers in North America could access the awards presentation via the TVB Anywhere North America app. This extensive reach showcased Macau’s urban vibrancy and entertainment appeal on the international stage. Since the announcement of the awards presentation in Macau, Grand Lisboa Palace has attracted crowds of excited fans and tourists eager to take photos in front of the various backdrops on property, each featuring their favorite television stars, heightening anticipation and excitement for the event. To accommodate the enthusiastic support of fans, SJM launched exclusive hotel packages that included event tickets and sold out immediately, demonstrating the event’s significant effectiveness in attracting visitors to Macau and encouraging longer stays.

Looking beyond the awards presentation, SJM partnered with TVB to present 2026’s flagship TV drama This City Never Sleeps. Through on-location filming, the series will feature Macau’s iconic landmarks as a backdrop, offering audiences an opportunity to appreciate its unique East-meets-West cityscape, rich cultural heritages, and premier leisure facilities.
